Reepham, Aylsham
and Taverham.

Message from Inspector Rob Wicks

I hope that you all had a fun and eventful Halloween and Bonfire evenings. From a Policing perspective both passed with little incident. This year all the Broadland Beat managers were deployed on Halloween with bags of sweets, to engage with young person's enjoying the evening and providing advice to any groups who were becoming involved in any ASB.

As we head into winter the earlier onset of darkness and can lead to an increase in criminal behaviour, please ensure that you lock windows and doors when you are away from your house, business or outbuildings. The winter period often also leads to an increase in lead being stolen from church roofs, should you note any suspicious behaviour please call 101 or in an emergency 999.

Your local Beat Manager PC Pete Magee What is Happening in your Area

Message from PC 1095 Colin Bailey: I will be covering the Aylsham Beat Managers role whilst PC Pete Magee is off. I will hopefully see you whilst I am out and about patrolling Aylsham and the surrounding Parishes.

Now the clocks have gone back, and the temperature has dropped, I have noted the big decline on the amount of people I see when I am out on patrol. Everyone is at home keeping warm and dry! Can I just give you a gentle reminder to be neighbourly. Take the time to check on a neighbour, who may not have any other contact that day, as a few minute chat and a smile may just make their day. The colder weather and darker nights can make this time of year a very lonely period for some.

As always, keep me updated with any events which are suitable for me to attend, I will endeavour to get to as many as possible. I can be contacted by email on:

Colin.Bailey@norfolk.pnn.police.uk. For your information the SNT Aylsham e-mail box, along with all the other SNT's, is not monitored for crime or incident recording purposes. If any issues of this nature occur can I ask that you report to Police on the non-emergency telephone number of 101, or 999 in an emergency. Incidents can also be reported on the Norfolk Police web page: www.norfolk.police.uk/contact-us/reportit! This will ensure that all reported incidents are recorded, and responded to, by the most suitable resource and within the appropriate timescales
