WHAT'S HAPPENING IN YOUR AREA?

We hope everyone is well and we would like to wish everyone a happy new year.

At the beginning of December, we held our online Priority Setting Meeting, where the results from the online public polls were discussed and the Policing priorities for the next 3 months were set and agreed:

- Speeding
- Anti-social/nuisance behaviour
- Concerns over drug dealing

The past month has been a busy month, the main focus being the local priorities of speeding and road safety.

We've been out conducting speed checks in areas identified by you, educating drivers and enforcing where appropriate. We will continue to conduct high visibility reassurance patrols.

We've also been carrying-out patrols in marked and unmarked vehicles and on foot, in areas that are known for anti-social behaviour. Furthermore, we've undertaken proactive patrols during the hours of darkness for any theft related and theft from motor vehicle offences.

As always, if you see us out and about, please come and say hello and take the opportunity to discuss any concerns you may have on our area. We will be holding various Engagement Surgeries, at various locations - these events will be advertised online, via our Facebook and Twitter pages, search @BroadlandPolice

DATES FOR YOUR DIARY

- Priority Setting Meeting – Tuesday 1st March @ 6pm online via Microsoft Teams
